London is one of the world's most exciting capitals. The starting point for many travelers visiting Europe, its cosmopolitan atmosphere, beautiful historic architecture and vibrant arts scene make it a great destination. London is served by five airports: Heathrow Airport, Gatwick Airport, Luton Airport, Stansted and the newest, City Airport. Hotels near Gatwick Airport are the most convenient for quick stopovers and considerably cheaper than hotels in central London. For travelers arriving via train, hotels in Bayswater and Paddington are plentiful and comparatively inexpensive.

Getting around central London is easy via the tube – a vast connection of subway lines that service the inner city. Nevertheless, when the weather is dry, the walk between the most famous sites, like Buckingham Palace and the Tower of London is a pleasant one. In sunny weather, Brits head to the nearest patch of grass and there's plenty of beautiful parkland in central London: Green Park, Hyde Park and Hamstead the most popular.

Some of beautiful gothic buildings in London are: The Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey and Tower Bridge. As a counterpoint, London is also home to some extremely modern architecture – 30 St Mary Axe (the Gherkin) dominates the skyline, while the Millennium Bridge spans the River Thames. For anyone in search of a hotel with fine quality and services for a decent price, this will be an excellent choice, if you are visiting west London.
