

Article published on January 27th 2012 | Vacations

A traveler has a choice of variety of holiday destinations in International tour packages, which may include Middle east, Asia, Europe or any of the beautiful island destinations in South East Asia region.

Mauritius is a beautiful island that gives peace and tranquility to one who goes there and it is a place which would give a fairy tale experience for the visitor. Its comforting sun, multi-colored sand, crystal water base, coral reefs, dormant volcanoes and rainforests will provide the happiest moments of life to the visitors, when they take an International tour to Mauritius.

Malaysia is a wonderful place where different ethnic groups live in harmony and one who takes up an International tour to Malaysia would witness the unique features of this country, enriched by events built up by Malayan, Chinese and Indian culture and various places of historical and religious importance.

Singapore is a multi-cultural location with diverse traditions, a City which rose from a small fishing village to the economic center of South East Asia's business houses, with brilliant technology and architecture adorning its infrastructure, satisfying visitors with multi-dimensional features, from wonderful zoological gardens to technically supreme 4D theatres and cable cars, above all food varieties from every part of the world, it is a wonderful place for tourists to throng in.

The International tour packages are offered by travel agents combining one or two destinations or to individual destinations with rich tour content and they generally cover the following tour expenses:

• Return air ticket

• Airport taxes

• Visa expenses in the intermediary countries

• Travel insurance for the entire tour period

• Hotel accommodation

Most of the International tour packages will take care of bed and breakfast at every station, however, lunch and dinner expenses will have to be borne by the tourist. In many International packages, they exclude the local tour expenses. The same way, the international tour packages may not include entrance fees required for exhibitions, boat rides, cable car charges or fees to be remitted for optional tour activities.

International tourists can make their own International packages, by booking flight tickets directly to each of the European cities and arrange for their hotel accommodation at each place, apart from purchasing local tour packages. But, it is always better to buy International tour packages offered by travel agents, since they would handle the tour nuances professionally.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/vacations-articles/singapore-is-mostly-included-in-south-east-asia-international-tours.htm> - Article Side

Noemi Letizia - About Author:

a International Tour Package. Book online Cheap International Tour Packages, Honeymoon Packages from India for your family with best travel deals on international-tour-packages.com

Article Keywords:

International Tour Packages, International Tours, Tour Package

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!