Article published on February 22nd 2012 | Business

LLP registration or the limited liability Partnership registration is the registration to a body of corporate which takes care of partnership affairs for a company. It is in itself a Limited firm with the features of Partnership Company. An LLP registered company enjoys benefits like limited liability to partners, simple process of registration and less tax compared to a company. Minimum number of partners required is two, but there is no limit of maximum number during or after registration. There is no restriction in the minimum capital which the partners contribute into to create the firm, and complete the llp registration.

LLC is the limited liability company. Going forward to have an llc registration for yourself, you must ensure to have a proper set of complete information. In order to enjoy all the protection that one can avail in terms of liability this is a mandatory need. To get yourself an LLC registration, you need to follow three simple steps. First of all you need to reach out to the state agency website or corporation commission in your state. Secondly you need to go through all the legal provisions of your stateâ€™s act for Limited Liability Company. Thorough information will lead you to a genuine LLC corporation, whereas half knowledge can take you to find trouble. Final step to getting yourself an LLC is calling your state agency and confirming about the all the criterions needed to get one. It is important for you to know all the areas of shortfalls which leads to rejection or delay of an LLC registration.

NBFC registration is the abbreviation for Non- banking financial company registration. NBFC companies are registered under the 1956 Companies Act of India. NBFC delivers credits to small borrowers and unorganised sectors. According to the Indian Act under section 45-IA, it is mandatory that every NBFC should be registered with the reserve bank of India. Any equipment lease, hire-purchase, loan or investment company of NBFC are the ones that need to be registered with the RBI.

FCRA is the Fair Credit Reporting Act. All organizations and associations which seek foreign contribution for definite cultural, social, educational and religious programmes need fcra registration. However a prior permission in some cases may help the organization in carrying forward the respective programmes. This is because it is not very easy to register in the FCRA. Several sets of track records are checked before bestowing this registration. All applications are thoroughly vetted before the grant of registration permission, but after obtaining it, the organisation is free to seek any foreign aid from any foreign source.

PAN is the permanent account number of an individual. Each individual in India, who is working needs to register for PAN. Many a times PAN card is used as an identification proof. pan registration is easy. It only needs a valid address proof about an individual and after application seeker receives his PAN card within a month. Once registered with PAN, you do not need to reapply for registration, even in case of destruction or losing the card. A simple complaint with an address proof and PAN number is enough to avail a new or renewed one.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/llp-registration-services-along-with-nbfc-registration.htm - Article Side

Mukesh Kumar - About Author:

Register your partnership liabilities with a llp registration services and get a llc registration to establish company with limited liability. Know how to get a nbfc registration and fcra registration. Find also pan registration services and more.

Article Keywords:
llp registration,llc registration,nbfc registration,fcra registration,pan registration

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!