Tirupati is one of the major pilgrimages situated in south India. Tourists all over the world come to visit this shrine every year. Tirupati is in fact considered to be one of the richest shrines in India and that is the reason why many foreign tourists too wish visiting the place. This abode of lord Venkateshware is situated in the Tirumala Hill and offers many comfortable hotels in Tirupati. Since this place is visited by tourists only for pilgrimage purposes, mostly budget hotels are found here.

Budget hotels in Tirupati offer outstanding services to the guests. Since the tourists visiting the place do not wish to spend much money on stay, these budget hotels offer best competitive prices for the facilities the guests avail. The room size of these hotels is not very big but is enough for a couple of people. The rooms are not wall to wall carpeted but have an attached bathroom, toilet with 24 by 7 water supply, are well furnished and have a television and telephone. The room service in budget hotels in Tirupati is very good. They have a kitchen which prepares all kinds of Indian vegetarian food. One can order food through room service or can go out and eat. There would not be a restaurant in the hotels to sit and eat in the hotels.

An interesting fact about budget hotels in Tirupati is that they charge meager Rs 660 for a night stay which is just nothing. One of the most sought after budget hotels in Tirupati include Hotel Sunilkrishna. It has a good location and is close to the shrine and very hospitable staff. It is considered value for money and offer good experience to the pilgrims.

Other good budget hotels in Tirupati include Hotel Gopikrishna, which also rents a room at Rs 600 per night and Hotel Shree Krishna which too charges the same tariff. The advantage these two hotels have over Hotel SunilKrishan is that they serve multi cuisine in their restaurants. They have clean surroundings, good location, amiable staff, and good room service facilities and are highly economical.

So if you are looking for a comfortable stay in Tirupati and think only luxury and five star hotels are capable of providing the same, think again. Budget hotels in Tirupati are equally good and offer a hassle free stay to its guests at much lower prices as compared to luxury and five star hotels.
