Who doesnâ€™t like to play light-hearted and funny games? Playing them is relaxing and entertaining. Here are some of the funny games that one can play online and have some good natured fun.

â€¢High School Game: I have been to high school and I know that it is not always a place of learning from books and taking notes in the class! From getting up in the morning to flop the plans of the notorious pranksters in the school; from appearing in exams to charming the sweet looking classmate- high school is place of learning many things! This funny game teaches the player how to dodge the hurdles at high school.

â€¢Britneyâ€™s Cocktail Quest: Pop Icon Britney Spears is known as much as for her singing as for her rash lifestyle. This game allows the player to step into the shoes of Britney as she tries to sneak past roving bartenders in a pub and steal a drink from right under their noses. The more she can drink, the higher points the player gets.

â€¢Royal Pain Game: Most of us are familiar with the British Guards who are known for their stiffness and their strict demeanor. This game is to distract them! The Royal Guards are stationed with their straight faces and the player has to click on the surrounding objects to make things happen and distract the guard.

â€¢Haunted Mansion: This is your chance to go into a haunted house and rough up some serious ghosts! You have to hover over the objects and make things topple, light up the fireplace and get the couple screaming away from the house. The game has eerie background music and you have fun watching the funny looking ghosts!

The funny games mentioned above are not at all difficult to play. They can be played by the simple mechanism of hovering the mouse over the hint tab when the games start. The hints give clear directions at what needs to be done to proceed with the game and move on to the next level. There is a timer which tells the player how much time is left to finish. Once a level is cleared, the game is automatically transferred to the next level. The games do not last for more than five minutes and it is a fast and funny way to relax and unwind after a tiring day.
