Article published on February 6th 2012 | Law

With internet marketing taking over the way people look for information and products there are very few brands or businesses that have not made their information available online. These days you can find anything online from baby products to even a criminal defense lawyer. Abilene Billboard Law firm is one such company that offers an innovative way to advertise your law firm through its website. The website of the company i.e. www.abilenelawattorney.com is very resourceful and you can easily find all the information you are looking for that too just in the comforts of your home or office. This site offers space on rent on their web page for lawyers looking for a platform to advertise their expertise.

For those looking for a lawyer in Abilene, Texas there is now no need for discrete gathering of information on lawyers in the area. There are options available on the site with lawyers specializing in all matters, divorce, child custody, name changes, alimony and even criminal defense lawyers. The site specializes in advertising on behalf of criminal defense attorneys and has interesting schemes. All you need to do is send them an email with the contact details and a short note on what you or your firm specializes in, years of expertise etc. This is advertised free for 45 days so that you get a feel of how advertising on the site helps your business.

Even if you already have a website you can still advertise with the abilenelawattorney.com site as a billboard and as a generator for leads. There will be a link provided that will take the browser directly to your site. When a potential client looks for a criminal defense lawyer in Abilene then when the site shows up your details will also show and this will be active on all the search engines getting you a large number of leads. Browse through the site and read about other law firms who have advertised with them. When you decide to sign up what you get is a 30-45 day free traffic and after that you will be charged $98/month. There is no obligation to continue if you are not satisfied and even after a month you can cancel the subscription.

The site is very user friendly and has all the information you could need. They will ensure that the common search phrases are all included in your write up so that whenever anyone anywhere is looking for a criminal defense attorney in Abilene will definitely come across your firm easily. Fill up the form on the site and there will be a competent representative who will be happy to assist.
