Belfast City Centre Things to Do by Lek Boonlert

Article published on December 5th 2011 | Outdoors

There are many hotels in Belfast city centre that are perfectly located for the attractions and activities that the city has to offer. Whether visitors to the city enjoy peaceful walks, lively clubs and bars or exploring and learning about the area, Belfast has something to offer everyone.

Fun for Families

Enjoying a day out at Belfast Zoo is perhaps one of the best ways to spend the day for those with children, or indeed anyone who enjoys seeing many species of animals living in close proximity to each other. Belfast Zoo is also close to public transport links but is accessible on foot from the city centre.

Enjoy a tour of the city from an open topped bus. The Belfast City Tour has a multi-lingual commentary, so visitors whose first language is not English can still sit back and enjoy the sights and understand the explanations.

The Giants Causeway is located a short distance from Belfast city centre but should come top of any visitorâ€™s to do list. It is worth taking the trip to see the natural geological wonder in all its glory. Children may also like to learn about the legend and myth surrounding the Causeway.

Active Pursuits

The Ballyearl Arts and Leisure Centre has many activities to enjoy under one roof. From a nine-hole golf course to The Courtyard Theatre, the Ballyearl has a wide choice of activities. For those who enjoy golfing there is also a floodlit driving range for practicing the swing.

Evening Entertainment

The Black Box is home to many shows, including theatre productions, live music and circus acts. Any visitor to the city looking to end their day of sightseeing or shopping with something a little more relaxing can sit back and enjoy as the performance unravels before them. Many of the performances may also be suitable for children, making it a great night out for families.
