The top 10 watch brands for men has not changed for years now and if you are looking for THE list of the top ten brands, you will be quite pleased of the high quality and craftsmanship that these brands have.

From the most high priced and the most stylish to sports watches that can tell more than just time, here are the top 10 watch brands for men:

1. Rolex – this is the classic mens™ watch that is considered the most stylish and probably the most expensive. It is acknowledged for its luxurious designs and expertise that somehow comes with every Rolex brand watch. The Rolex watch is also one of the most imitated watch brands so be very careful in buying authentic Rolex watches.
2. Timex – is second place but it also has a lot of stylish designs to offer. It has an amazing catalogue of sports watches that are not only robust-looking but are reasonably priced as well.
3. Citizen – designs range from plain to stylish with qualities that can stand the test of time. Citizen watches are also priced reasonably and you can be that every watch performs well no matter what the demands are.
4. Seiko – has been on the list of top 10 mens™ watches for so many years now which is recognized anywhere and are also very affordable.
5. Philippe Starck – is considered one of the exquisite watch brands that have unique designs and beautiful colors. If you are looking for a fashionable and stylish watch, then a Philippe Starck watch is for you.
6. Oakley – Oakley has been known for high quality and stylish sunglasses. Oakley watches however are made to perfection and has so many models to choose from.
7. Pulsar – may look like a Rolex imitation but is certainly priced more reasonably than a Rolex. There are several Pulsar mens™ watch models that are designed after a Rolex and also have high quality and craftsmanship that is comparable to a Rolex.
8. Diesel – if you are thinking of buying a tough-looking watch then you absolutely need to shop for a Diesel watch. These watches are made of the highest quality materials and some Diesel watches even have designs with authentic leather straps.
9. Bulova – sometimes a classic mens™ watch is still the best choice. A Bulova is known for its charming, and equally expensive, diamond accents and incomparable chronographs that have striking yet classic designs. But compared to a Rolex, it is inexpensive plus designs are simpler and more straightforward than expensive brands.
10. Fossil – high end watches that will surely make heads turn is what Fossil watches are all about. This brand is versatile and is expertly made with a huge catalogue of uniquely designed watches for men and women alike. So if you are looking for the best of the best when it comes to mens™ watches, Fossil watches will surely stand out among other brands when it comes to fine quality and designs.
