Benidorm is a beautiful holiday resort which has gained popularity among tourists during the recent past as a perfect holiday destination. Every year a number of visitors from Europe and across the world especially choose Benidorm as their holiday resort during summer for many reasons. Benidorm has everything for everyone to have a enjoyable holiday trip. Accommodation in Benidorm is available ranging from low priced hotels to apartments and some very good quality five star resorts and hotels. You can easily book a hotel of your own choice with some very good facilities and services in Benidorm.

The local economy of the city is highly dependent upon visitors both from within Spain and nearby countries during vacations and at weekends. Alicante is the nearest city with an international airport and you can easily reach Benidrom either by bus, car or train from Alicante International Airport. A number of tourism companies are available on-line to help you book everything well in advance of your trip to Benidorm.

The city remains busy and crowded with visitors even in winter as the weather during this season is mostly dry and mild, and the travel agents also do some good marketing to attract visitors to the city during this season. A number of senior citizens and retirees love to spend the whole season in Benidorm and hotels do offer them special packages at very reasonable prices. In comparison with other resorts in Spain, the city remains busy during the first two months of the year on account of its climate.There are three prominent beaches in the city which are white, sandy and very clean with a number of facilities for visitors like sun-beds, cafes and parasols.

The water at the beaches is also very clean and meets international standards.Benidrom has a lot to offer in the evening and at night. There are a number of options for visitors to get entertained during this time and all night long too. There are many clubs, discos, shows and live performances, cafes and bars with many activities to offer the visitors. The city keeps alive throughout the night till dawn.If you are visiting villas in spain with your family, you have a number of choices and activities to do. You can visit the famous Terra Mitica Amusement Park in the city and Mundomar Park which is known for its popular Dolphin Show. The city is full of parks, gardens, museums, clubs, shops and other places of tourist interest.
