

Article Side

Explore Beautiful Places of Himachal by Trekking by Rahul Ranjan

Article published on April 23rd 2012 | Travel

Trekking of any place offers you an opportunity to explore that place properly. With the help of trekking, you can also explore the culture and activities of the people living in the mountainous region. Trekking in India is a famous adventurous activity and people from different parts of the world visit India to enjoy trekking and gain some life time unforgettable experiences of different places. Though there are numbers of trekking destinations in India but trekking destinations in North India is said to be the paradise for the trekkers. Different trekking destinations of Himalayan belt are famous all over the world like Garhwal, Himachal, Ladakh and Sikkim. Even the foothills of the Himalayas are the perfect place for trekking and for some other adventurous activities.

The valley of Kullu is famous as "Valley of the Gods". So Kullu Valley Holy trek is a famous trek of the region. With the help of trekking, you will get the opportunity to explore the valley of Kullu and you can also experience the local color and the beauty of the valley in the different temples of Kullu and Manali. With the help of Kullu Valley holy trek, numbers of tourists enjoy the ambience of Kullu as well as visit the important temples like Lord Raghunath, Hadimba Devi etc along with the verdant valleys, beautiful orchards of apple, grazing herds etc.

Shimla Jalori Trek is one of the most important trek of Shimla. on way of trekking you will get the opportunity to visit the lake and an old fort, panoramic views of the beautiful peaks of Kullu and also the beautiful views of Kinnaur and Lahaul peaks. This route is open for the vehicles for almost 9 months in a year. This pass is a height of 3223 mts and it will take almost 10 days for full trekking.

Shimla Rohru Trek is a medium difficult trek. You can easily go for this trek in between the months of May to June and also in between September to October. Rohru is in the Shimla region, near Dhanwari. From Shimla there is a convenient road towards Dhanwari and on way you will get the opportunity to visit the places like Jubbal and Theo in addition to Rohru. There is also a tourist rest house. The maximum duration for Shimla Rohru trek is of 2-3 days.

Like this there are several treks in Himachal and the trekking enthusiasts enjoy in exploring various places.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/explore-beautiful-places-of-himachal-by-trekking.htm> - Article Side

Rahul Ranjan - About Author:

indiantrekking.com offers the details about a Trekking in India. It has nice packages any type of trekking like a Trekking in Himachal, trekking in Ladakh, trekking in Sikkim and trekking in Garhwal. Here you also find the hotels in every spot of trekking.

Article Keywords:

Indian trekking, trekking in India, trekking in Himachal, trekking in Sikkim

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!