Article published on August 2nd 2012 | Travel

Are you a frequent traveler and are always concerned about catching your flights in time and avoiding any kind of delays in transferring from your private location or hotel to the airport? The London Gatwick airport being the second biggest destination of international passengers in London offers fabulous facilities for all kinds of travelers passing through its gates. Gatwick which has the world's busiest single use runway and tow huge terminals connected with driverless trains sees millions of passengers every year. It is one of the hot favorite airports of the world and second in United Kingdom after Heathrow. Parking at the Gatwick airport can be a real hassle especially when your time is short and you are to catch a flight. Majority of the people belonging to business or corporate class hire Gatwick valet parking services for saving time and traveling with convenience.

Traveling to the airport in order to catch your flight is always a hectic procedure. First you need to search for an empty parking space in finally when you get it miles away from the terminal building, it's a real hassle to walk all the way to the terminal along with your luggage. In this regard meet and greet services have been introduced at all world's popular and advanced airports. For instance at the Gatwick Airport of London in past, the concept of Gatwick meet and greet valet parking was quite simple. There were private parking spaces located at large distances of miles from the airport where the passengers parked their cars and a limousine or shuttle bus transfer service transferred them to the main entrance of the airport's terminal building. This process has been made easier and more convenient for the travelers of Gatwick airport by some of the country's renowned car parking companies. The valet parking Gatwick airport is now more convenient and stylish than ever before.

For instance Britannia Airport Parking Limited which is one of the oldest and most reputed airport parking companies offers special meet and greet parking services at the London Gatwick Airport. All you need to do is to make an online reservation of your Gatwick airport meet and greet service and drive to the airport. You will not have to look for a parking space; instead you will drive straight to the entrance of terminal building where you will be welcomed by their courteous and uniformed staff. They will take your car and you can enter the terminal building straightaway. Their drivers are licensed, fully insured and professionally trained. They take your car carefully to their private parking location where they wash it and keep it clean till your return. Your car is parked at a very secure location under the monitoring of CCTV and is kept clean and maintained unless you come back. All you need to do is to come back and give them a call during your custom clearance at the Gatwick airport and their driver will be waiting for you with your car at the terminal door where he had left you.
