

Article Side

Life in Reading Berkshire by Steven Ralph

Article published on April 26th 2012 | Travel

Reading is a large town and unitary authority area in the historical and ceremonial county of Berkshire in England. It is located at the confluence of two major rivers i.e. Thames and Kennet. The town of Reading is at an approximate distance of around 64 kilometers from the west of metropolitan and cosmopolitan city of London. The town has a population of approximately 145,700 according to the estimation done in year 2008. The town was considered as an important place in the medieval times. It is full of rich culture and traditions. The name of this town is Reading but it is pronounced as "Redding". Transportation facilities can be found easily in this large town. The different types of transportation facilities include car hire, taxi hire, van and bus hire.

Aside from other means of ground transportation, the town has its own exclusive rail station. The Reading Railway Station which was formerly known as Reading General is located in the North of Reading town centre. It is a major hub of travel and transportation in the town of Reading. The Reading Railway Station is located near to the main retail and commercial zone of Reading. CrossCountry, First Great Western and South West Trains are the companies which are providing transportation facilities at the Reading Railway Station. Aside from train services, local taxi booking in Reading is quite economical. The town offers the least expensive accommodations and travel facilities as compared to other places around UK. There are a large number of car rental companies as well. From sedans to limousines, you can find just about anything suiting your budget and requirements.

Reading is a town of great importance in Berkshire County because it is a home to two big universities of UK. The University of Reading in Whiteknights and The University of West London which was formerly known as Thames Valley University, are the two prestigious universities in the town of Reading. Many students from the country and from around the world especially come to Reading and get admitted in these universities in order to get the best quality education. The town has as many as four historical museums. They include the master pieces of past and are a heaven for archaeologists. The Museum of English Rural Life in the University of Reading is among the most visited tourist spots around the town. It throws light on the Greek libraries, botanical and zoological gardens and archaeology. This museum is open to public. The airport cab services around the town of Reading are cheap and affordable for all.

Shopping facilities at Reading are up to the mark. You can easily located shopping malls. The two major shopping malls of reading include The Oracle Mall and The Broad Street mall. Whether you are a local resident, a traveler or a tourist from across the country, you can easily find travel facilities all around the town. The airport cab services for Reading to and from Heathrow, Luton, Gatwick, Stansted and London City can be found locally or booked online via websites. CrossCab is one of the leading online taxi booking companies of United Kingdom. They have a virtual fleet of cabs across the country. The unique selling point of CrossCab is the quality of their service and their specialization in airport transportation services. They provide premium class cab services to all other major airports of the United Kingdom. Their drivers are professionally trained, licensed and local to Reading.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/life-in-reading-berkshire.htm> - Article Side

Steven Ralph - About Author:

Aside from train services, local a taxi booking in Reading is quite economical. The airport cab services for Reading a to and from Heathrow, Luton, Gatwick, Stansted and London City can be found locally or booked online via websites.

Article Keywords:

car hire, taxi booking, airport cab services, to and from Heathrow

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!