Article published on April 17th 2012 | Travel

Rivera Maya, one of the luxurious Mexican tourist destinations is famous for its beaches and historical significances connected with the famous ancient Mayan civilization. The charm of the beaches will let you relaxed and even the sunset can again drift you to a romantic mood at the seashore. You can arrive at Cancun International Airport situated on Caribbean Coast and start your cherished voyage into the Mayan exquisiteness. There are a wide variety of places to visit in Rivera Maya. Sailing on the crystal clear waters of the Caribbean Sea and exploring the underwater world will be a magical experience for you. Xcaret, the famous eco-archaeological park was the ancient ceremonial centers of Mayan culture. You will be astonished by seeing the world's second largest coral reef through scuba diving in the Cancun and Mayan Rivera. Also the thrill of swimming with the human friendly and affectionate dolphins in the calm sea will be a once in a life time experience for you. The Snorkeling way can also extend your underwater experiences by witnessing the ancient rock formations (stalactites and stalagmites) under the sea. Riding a horse by the beach and exploring a part of the Caribbean jungle can give you a different feel. Even the extraordinary landscape of Mayan Jungles will be a delightful thing for the Golf lovers. Driving the automatic quad bike (ATV) through the jungles and exploring the underground river will be adding a powerful feel to you. The Sac-Actun, the longest underground river in the world, the natural reserve called Kantenah etc. can expose the dazzling beauty of the nature.

Chichen Itza was the ancient Mayan empire where the worship of their serpent God called Kukulcan was prevailing. This is a mystical place with the old majestic temples with a mystery of the old civilization. The thrill of fishing and trolling from the fully equipped boat is memorizing too. The Mayan walled city called Tulum was constructed early in tribute of the sun god. It is a city within walls and the same was early occupied by the upper class communities of that civilization. XEL-HA known as the largest aquarium in the world is having several tropical fish with large variety. Climbing the tallest pyramids of Chimuch and Coba can feel the cultural heritage of the Mayans. Los Cabos located at the southern tip of Baja Peninsula is another paradise for the tourists with several isolated sandy shoreline. The Cabo San Lucas, a busy holiday destination is also amazing in its shopping and nightlife. You will be availing the best in class food and accommodation services from the hotels too. For the tourists' convenience, there are various flight services operating in Mexico to the various outside destinations like Los Angeles, London, Paris, Brasil etc.
