Rajahmundry and Hyderabad lie in Andhra Pradesh in southern India. While Hyderabad is the capital of Andhra Pradesh, it is well connected with all other cities across the state through railways and roadways services. If you wish to travel between Rajahmundry Hyderabad route, you can easily enjoy bus service which is really good in this part of India. It takes only six hours to cover the distance of 400 kilometres by bus on NH 7 by a good bus like a Volvo. Though there are many other buses also available connecting Rajahmundry Hyderabad like an AC Deluxe bus, Non-AC Deluxe bus, Sleeper Buses both AC and Non AC and AP State Transport buses too, yet the best and the most comfortable option is that of opting for a Volvo if you like to travel in comfort.

The biggest advantage of travelling by bus on Rajahmundry Hyderabad stretch is that you can get booking of tickets done even an hour in advance. This means unlike a train reservation that has to be done at least a month in advance, buses booking can be done even if you plan a trip half an hour in advance. Moreover, Rajahmundry Hyderabad buses are preferred by students and working officials as it does not require much of planning in advance.

Spending six hours in bus is nothing at all, especially if you save a huge amount in comparison to a train. Train also takes five hours to cover the same distance on Rajahmundry Hyderabad stretch. So taking a bus is not at all a bad idea with such amazing and wide roads thanks to NH7. If you want to save on time, you can also take over night Rajahmundry Hyderabad buses which start at 7:30 pm, 8:30 pm, 9:30 pm, 10:30 pm and the last bus of the day is at 11:30 pm.

These days booking of all Rajahmundry Hyderabad buses can be done online, including that of a State Transport bus. So it has become furthermore convenient. Similarly, you can do online Bus Booking from Mumbai to Indore, which again is a very popular route amongst travellers. The roads are good and the journey is not too long. Moreover, you can do bus booking from Mumbai to Indore easily. Thus, more and more travellers are these days opting for travelling by bus instead of train because they are more convenient and much more comfortable too.
