

Article published on December 1st 2011 | Weddings

Winter in North India is about marriages. It is vibrant and full of masala weddings and parties. From weddings to Iftar parties north India is full of shiny dramas. The whole story about winter weddings make wonderful plots for any bollywood movie blush. Marriage is, without doubt, one of the most significant events of a person's life, and it marks the beginning of a new life for the bride and groom.

It is all about great food and dance. Music without doubt is perfect. The band baja of Indian wedding is the main attraction. Any foreigner can go gaga over Indian weddings. For the unusual beat and drums winter weddings are known for their flashy and interesting traditions and rituals. Over the time, the wedding styles have changed, especially for the elite class. People now have wedding planners and the money to spend, but the rituals still play an important role in an Indian wedding. Everybody loves to follow the cultural theme associated with it small or big.

Wedding planner are also seeing entry in Indian weddings. They are doing good especially during winter it brings out perfect harmony with their blazing ideas. They can now set up wonderful events with candles, roses; ribbons are also used as the decorative accessories in a lavish wedding. Water is also used to decorate the wedding ceremony. A wedding planner must be aware of trend and drift running in the market. A good knowledge of religions is also required. A planner must have knowledge of customs and traditions, which are also part of many wedding ceremonies. Most of all they should be an encyclopaedia.

Indian weddings are exuberantly held. In a traditional Indian wedding these customs last for many days. The simple affair of a person's life has been to the biggest event that takes place in not only the bride's and the groom's life but also in the lives of their families and relatives. Wedding planner work closely alongside couples and their clients chosen vendors to deliver breathtaking and memorable special event celebrations. Wedding planners are hired by the families to help them to coordinate the big event and how it can be memorable for them.

People have started to look for an event manager or specifically saying, a wedding planner, for carrying out a successful wedding. They need to arrange all things form the wedding cards, gifts, wedding cakes, wedding flower, a wedding venue. Wedding planners help in arranging a budget and make a timetable, so that mistakes might not happen at the time of execution. The wedding planner manages the money and ensures that the wedding is according to budget.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/weddings-articles/cost-effective-wedding-planning-this-winter.htm> - Article Side

Deepak Verma - About Author:

Find your a wedding planner and make your wedding memorable from fnpweddings its provides a wedding planning thought best a wedding planners.

Article Keywords:

decoration,weddings planning, wedding decorations, event planning