Owing to the busy and hectic lifestyle of the 21st century, the task of organising a wedding ceremony indeed seems to be an implausible one without the assistance of a wedding planner.

However, if this is the first time you are planning to hire a wedding planner then, a number of doubts and queries must be effervescing in your mind regarding the services provided by a wedding planner. Here is a list of FAQs about the top wedding planning services in India:

1. Why hire a Wedding Planner?

A wedding planner ensures that the element of stress is taken away from bride or the groom and their family members and they are allowed some time for relaxation to gear themselves for the big day. Owing to their huge network of contacts, they make sure to allocate the best services at the best price for you in keeping with your budget. With a team of veterans handling every little responsibility of the organisation of your entire wedding, every ceremony in the wedding, from Sagaai to Bidai is organised in the most innovative manner with a touch of professional deftness.

2. Will a wedding planner assist us in organising our wedding event if we want a small wedding ceremony?

Yes, of course! A wedding planner is not meant for planning only big, fat weddings. Instead it aims at organising your wedding exactly the way you want it to and in keeping with your budget. They provide you a customised package for all the services you want to avail.

3. What charges are levied by a Wedding Planners over the actual cost of all the services that are availed?

This depends on the size of the wedding and the level of organisation involved and differs from one agency to another and you must request a quote for it.

4. Are there any hidden charges as well?

No, there are no hidden charges and even the minutest detail of your wedding package will be specified on your quote.

5. Are consultations chargeable?

The consultations are absolutely free of cost.

6. Do they handle everything personally?

Yes, they handle all the services and deal with vendors personally and nothing is left on chance. They will also be in contact with you directly and everything will be planned as per your choices from the beginning till the end.

7. How do i book my wedding?

Once you finalise the budget and the destination of your wedding, you are required to fill a form about your likes and preferences which helps the wedding planner design a customised wedding package for you, after which a contract is sent to you. If you accept the contract, you need to pay a fraction of the wedding cost as specified by your wedding planner, which is non-refundable.

8. What services would be included within my budget?

The package offered to you by your wedding planner would include anything and everything.

9. Do they have references? Can we speak to couples who have already availed their services?

Good wedding planners will always provide you references unhesitatingly.

10. Can we speak to the vendors and view examples of their work if we want to?

The wedding planners provide you with the list of vendors booked by them along with their contacts. You can go and view samples of their work whenever you want to.
